

October 4, 2015.

Dear ReSyLAB 2015 participant,

We would like to inform you that ReSyLAB 2015 Proceedings are entering publishing preparation stage, and therefore, we announce the following important dates for your consideration:

- Nov 15, 2015 - deadline for full paper submission:

Please, submit your full paper to landslides@rgf.bg.ac.rs, named and formatted as instructed in ReSyLAB2015 template guidelines available at:
resylab2015.rgf.rs/files/Paper%20Template%202nd%20ReSyLAB.dotx

- Dec 5, 2015 - deadline for reviewers

- Dec 15, 2015 - deadline for resubmitting camera-ready (reviewed) manuscripts:

Please, submit your camera-ready paper to landslides@rgf.bg.ac.rs, named and formatted as instructed in ReSyLAB2015 template guidelines available at:
resylab2015.rgf.rs/files/Paper%20Template%202nd%20ReSyLAB.dotx

- Dec 20, 2015 - acceptance notifications
- Feb 1, 2015 - expected publication date.

Please, try to meet these deadlines as the success of the publication relies on it. Proceedings will be single peer-reviewed, color-printed, ISBN cataloged, available in a hard copy (delivered via mail, door-to-door, for fully registered participants) and in digital (PDF) format. You are encouraged to follow further announcements, templates or information directly on our website <http://resylab2015.rgf.rs/>. If you are already submitted your manuscript you will receive revised article up to 15th October 2015.

With kindest regards,

Prof. dr Biljana Abolmasov
